STATE NEWS.

Androscoggin.

The Journal says that Mr. S. S. Ashworth lost a valuable cow last week. It seems that the boy who was sent for the cow, didn't look very thoroughly, and two days afterwards, a man accidentally found her in a corner of the pasture. Mr. Ashworth's folks were not notified promptly, and when the cow got home, she had not been milked for three or four days. She died on Sunday. The cow was worth $50.

A clerk in a Lewiston clothing store was caught till-tapping, Saturday night. Marked money was found on his person. He was taken to the lockup. Sunday night he made a confession to the City Marshal. He said he had been stealing for three months and had taken twenty-five or thirty dollars. The item say their losses run up into the hundreds. The young man's friends came forward and settled with the firm, Monday, and he was released.

Aroostook.

The Houlton Pioneer says: Angus McIntosh, a common laborer, about thirty-five years of age, and addicted to intemperate habits, died last Friday. Thursday night he came or was brought home in a state of intoxication and unconscious. The doctor thinks there may have been foul play sufficient to produce paralysis of the brain.

Cumberland.

The new railroad bridge erected by the Westbrook Manufacturing Company, is completed, and several cars loaded with building material, have passed over it during the past few days.

As Mr. Wm. W. McCann of Sacarappa, was getting into his wagon, Thursday noon, his horse became unmanageable, and started suddenly, throwing him violently to the ground, and overturning the wagon. Mr. McC. was taken up in an insensible condition; and upon examination it was found that he was badly cut and bruised about the face and head. With these injuries, and that of his infirm condition for the past five years, he is now lying seriously ill at his residence.

Franklin.

The Journal says: Mrs. Sarah W., widow of the late Isaac Freese, of Weld, died July 15th, aged 89 years and 6 months. She was a daughter of Mr. Alexander Alden, who emigrated from Bridgewater, Mass., many years ago; and became one of the pioneer settlers in Jay, now Canton. A division of the town in 1820 or 1821. Mr. A. subsequently moved to Milo and died there some twenty years ago, aged about 71 years. Mrs. Freese was a prominent member of the three orphan children of the late Winfield S. and Sarah A. Libby of Weld. Notwithstanding the advanced age of Mrs. F., she has taken charge of those orphan children ever since the death of their parents, living alone with them and doing the work personally, besides weaving many webs of cloth for her neighbors. It is a singular circumstance that both grandmothers of the orphan children died on the same week—Naomi B. Hutchinson, July 11th, and Mrs. Frost July 16th. For a few years past, Mrs. F. drew a pension on account of her husband's service in the 1812 war. Mrs. F. died rather suddenly—being sick but two or three days.

Kennebec.

Fred Knowlton of Liberty, contractor for mail service between that town and the first class new Concord mail stage on the line; a great accommodation to the increased passenger traffic of this important route.

Monchester, possesses an eccentric farmer who utilizes his cows in a novel manner. Not having any oxen these animals, when yoked up do all his breaking up, pull his harrow, haul up the wood, etc. While exercise, the farmer says, is an excellent thing for the cows and increase the flow of milk.

Oxford.

The Democrat says: While at work in the woods, June 25th, Mr. Geo. M. Cushman of Bryant's Pond, was struck on the head by a falling limb and was severely injured; in fact it was a narrow escape from death. He has been unable to work since.

The Democrat says that the centennial celebration of the attack of the St. Francis Indians on Sudbury, Canada, will be held at Bethel Hill, August 3d.——One of the finest landscapes here, that from Sunset Rock along the Androscoggin meadows, with Mount Washington and Kearsarge in the distance, has been elaborately painted, the work being valued at $10,000.

Washington.

A lassoo man discharged a shot-gun in a crowd at Jackson Brook, slightly wounding several.

York.

The new junction railroad opened formally to the public Monday, the eight-teenth, and will connect with every train on the Eastern railroad throughout the season.

FRESH NOTES ABOUT THE FASHIONS.

[From the N. Y. Evening Post.]

Yellow, red and olive green guipure lace has appeared.

"Dawn" is a new shade of pale gold.

Stylish evening wraps are eastern in texture, color and design.

Tea-gowns made of glace-surah, shot with gold, are among summer novelties.

In order to be fashionable in all things the "Society" girl is now knitting her own dainty silk "Nancy."

Cape dresses trimmed with pearl-beaded lace and garnished with trailing wreaths of flowers are the most beautiful dresses worn this season.

Surah and foulard nightdresses are very fashionable; they are shirred over the shoulders and upon the sleeves, and trimmed with duo Smyrna lace.

Duchesse lace sets are much worn this season, the entire set including tablier, vest, jabot, handkerchief and broad Smart collar with deep cuffs to match.

New fichus are very elaborately made, with box plaited ruches and a fall of rich lace around the edges and shaped and tied in the Directoire knot.

Small parasols and very large fans are carried, and the most expensive of them are covered with peacock feathers. The fans are circular in shape, having richly mounted handles.

Pretty evening dresses for young girls are made of white summer cashmere, over which are worn shirred silk tunics and pointed Hungarian waists, laced downthe back and cut with extremely short sleeves.

There appears to be a very strong tendency to return to the wearing of crinoline, as dresses continue to grow more bouffant —the forwarded inspected dresses showing a constantly increasing fullness in the skirt.

White satin costumes are popular even with quite young ladies, and some of the most elaborate of these toilets are embroidered with seed pearls, or have the tablers exquisitely hand painted and edged with duchesse lace.

Dark green rough and ready straw, having the upturned brims faced with crimson surah, and trimmed around the crown with wreaths of crimson roses and foliage, make very effective and becoming garden party hats.

For outdoor entertainments the Spanish lace mantilla is much worn, and is fastened to the head by a high Spanish comb. It is draped lightly over the shoulders, crossed over the bosom and caught up at the belt by a full bloom rose and a tiny cluster of green leaves.

The sleeves of some of the coaching toilets extend nearly within several inches of the elbow, and the fashion calls for the long elghteen button gloves of Danish kid which fit loosely over the arm and entirely cover the clothing, just meeting the trimming of the very short sleeve.

Elegant dinner dresses have the corsage and train of satin brocade, or a rich plain satin train, the tablier being of contrasting plain satin brocade material, or is also frequently formed of row upon row of white Spanish lace ruffles, headed by beaded passementerie bands.

Long dresses are rarely worn this season by young ladies who dance, and the sandals, boots and slippers usually match the color of the dress worn, and are delicately embroidered or beaded over the instep. If trimmed with wide bows and large buckles they make the feet look awkward and clumsy.

Jersey bronzes, having awning-striped skirts and scarfs, are much in use for bathing dresses. Another style is the blouse shape with a plain yoke top, having the shoulder seams gathered. The short skirt is laid in wide kilts closely tacked on the inside to keep them in place while bathing.

Some very odd and pretty manner of collars are shown made of ivory white or cream colored India silk literally loaded with white lace and brightened by rounds and rows of rich oriental beads. A wide sash is also added, draped over the skirt in a graceful manner, and fastened low on the left side of the dress.

Every possible fancy is displayed in scarfs designed to wear with dresses. Very broad sashes come in ombre colors, dotted with gold, stars, dahlias, lotus, and more luxurious patterns show Turkish, satins for Pompadour, Japanese and Chinese designs, and rich Persian embroideries wrought in beads and oriental silks.

An ingenious invention is a cork sole nearly an inch thick at the heel and sloping gradually down to the usual thickness at the toes. It is designed to increase the stature of those who wish to appear taller than they really are. It is cut from a single piece of cork, is neatly covered with leather, and can be made fashionable and pretty.

Newly imported shoulder-capes are made of black surah, shirred down from the neck about six inches, finished with a deep frill of jetted lace which is also plaited around the throat and close to the edges of the caps, and lined with pale gold colored satin. A silk cord and tassels heavily jetted fasten the caps in front.

Silver-gray silk dresses, having a soft pinkish sheen—very beautiful by gaslight—are exceedingly fashionable just at present. They are very becoming to all styles of brunettes, either dark or fair. Some of these dresses are brightened by fichus, scarfs, vests, etc., of pink or crimson surah; they are also made up very plainly with no trimmings except those made of the material itself, but there are also exhibited some costly and elegant toilets, showing a long court train of heavy white kerr gray Brocade silk with a tablier composed of superb white lace ruffles. The close fitting Josst d'Arc bodice is cut perfectly plain, with long tight sleeves terminating in double puffs of lace at the wrist, and where the neck, which opens in a square shape, is plaited a ruffle of the same garniture, kept in place by a stiff Medici collar of the silk.

A SLANDER EXPLODED

[From the N Y Times]

For the fourth or fifth time since Mr Warner Miller was nominated as a Republican candidate for the United States Senate, the silly and baseless slander that he was a deserter from the military service of his country is exploded. The official documents in the case which are quoted in Albany dispatches should settle for ever, the question which has been raised by malicious and busy gossips. It appears that Mr Miller served faithfully in the war, was captured while sick and was paroled by the enemy while under pursuit by United States troops. Being paroled, he could not serve, neither could he have been exchanged. He was honorably discharged and the certificate and recommendations subsequently granted to him set forth his patriotism and abilities in terms which might well be coveted by the jealous and malevolent writers who make haste to blacken the character of a Senator elected by members of their own party.

THE BRITISH CENSUS

The preliminary report on the English census just laid before the House of Lords shows that the population of England and Wales has increased 3,... since 1871 and now reaches ... The rate of increase which was between fourteen and fifteen per cent, seems small when compared with the thirty per cent rate of gain in our own population during substantially the same period. But while this is true the rate of increase has not been so high in England since the decade between 1831 and 1841 and it was during the past ten years ... ing this period the birth rate was unusually high and the death rate except on ... low, results which Lord Carrington attributes to the good effects of modern sanitary legislation. The population of Ireland is found to be 5,159,849 which shows a decrease of ...,... or 4 7 per cent in ten years. Since 1841 the Irish population has fallen away from eight to five millions in consequence of famine, emigration, etc. The present state of affairs is not likely to arrest the downward tendency. Belfast, with its present population of 207,000 has gained 33,000 since 1871 but Dublin is very little larger now than it was ten years ago. Besides a few other denominations and some who refused to give their religious belief, there are now in Ireland 3,951,888 Roman Catholics and 1,...,... Protestants.

DEATH OF DEAN STANLEY

Arthur Penrhyn Stanley, Dean of Westminster is dead. He was attacked by erysipelas in the head on Friday and little hope of his recovery was entertained. He was attended by Sir William Jenner and Dr Harper and was nursed by his sister Mrs Vaughan, who has rarely left his side. Inquiries respecting his condition have been continuous since Saturday, ... evincing the deepest concern in the condition of the reverend and beloved Dean. The Queen, the Prince and Princess ... many have made constant inquiries ... Sunday night the erysipelas extended to the Dean's shoulders. Early Monday morning Canon Farrar administered the sacrament. At a quarter to twelve Monday evening Dean Stanley passed calmly and peacefully away. The Archbishop of Canterbury visited the Deanery of Westminster just in time to speak a few words to Dean Stanley before the latter became unconscious. Dean will be buried beside his wife in Westminster Abbey. Dean Stanley was born at Alderley Cheshire on the 13th of December 1815. His father was Dr Edward Stanley, for thirty two years rector of Alderley and afterward Bishop of Norwich. He was sent to Rugby school where he had been the favorite pupil of the illustrious Dr Arnold, beginning a friendship terminated only with that great teacher's death. He afterward became his biographer and in 1844 the Life of Arnold was published, and was conceded to be one of the best biographies ever written. From Rugby he passed to Oxford University where he commenced a brilliant career by carrying off a Balliol scholarship. Soon after the Newdigate prize for his English poem "The Gypsies." The next year he gained the Ireland scholarship, following it up in 1838 by a first class in classics. In 1839 he obtained the Latin essay prize and the English essay prize and the Ellerton theological prize. In the same year he was elected fellow of University College and for many years after was known as one of the best tutors in Oxford and as one of the ... of what was then known as ... In 18.. he refused the Deanery of ... tendered to him by Lord John ... as a mark of respect to his father ... as a liberal bishop. Having been secretary of the Oxford University Commission and one of its guiding spirits he was rewarded in 1851 with a canonry at Canterbury which he held until 1858. Returning to Oxford he became Regius Professor of Ecclesiastical History and Canon of Christ Church. In 1860 he was elected a member of the Hebdomadal Council. He was for many years chaplain to the Prince Consort and in a similar capacity to the Prince of Wales he accompanied him to the East, publishing in 1862 a volume of sermons preached in the Holy Land, with some interesting notes of his tours. He was also examining chaplain to the Bishop of London, and while holding that position published a pamphlet in favor of relaxing subscription to the articles, which he dedicated to the Bishop. In 1864 he was called as Dean of Westminster, and has since then been conspicuous as a champion of broad and liberal views. His congregation was always a large one and his eloquent discourses attracted much attention. The University of St. Andrews conferred on him the degree of LL. D in 18.. and in the following year he took part in the proceedings of the 'Old Catholic Congress held at Cologne. In December, 1872, he was elected one of the Select preachers at Oxford by three hundred and forty nine votes against two hundred and eighty seven. In 1875 he was installed Lord Rector of the University of St. Andrews. In the fall of 1878 he came to the United States landing at New York, and making a rapid tour through the country. He preached several sermons in Boston and Philadelphia remarkable for their breadth of view and freedom from sectarian bias.

SENATOR MILLER CONGRATULATED

Among the congratulatory despatches received by Senator-elect Warner Miller are the following from prominent friends of ex Senator Conkling:

NEWPORT, R. I., July 18

I only this morning received news of your election as United States Senator. Accept heartiest congratulations. We sail on Wednesday. LEVI P. MORTON.

WASHINGTON, July 18

Accept the warmest congratulations of Mrs James and myself on your triumphant success. THOMAS L. JAMES.

CHICAGO, July 18.

It does not make us feel very badly to be beaten by you. Accept congratulations of the Inter-Ocean.

W. E CURTIS.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., July 18.

Mrs Hiscock and the subscriber most emphatically congratulate Mr and Mrs Miller, and we think they should hasten to accept the invitation I gave a little while ago to visit us. FRANK HISCOCK.

[From the Utica Herald]

Warner Miller is in the prime of a vigorous and robust manhood. He has the splendid physique which a successful public career demands for its basis. He is tireless of effort and successful in business enterprise. He has a thorough education and those qualities of mind which make him the peer of any man in any situation. Not naturally an orator, he is a man of perfect self possession and a master of the plain and manly Saxon that tells. No young Republican in the State has given more substantial promise of a great and influential future. He is promoted to the leadership of the party at a time when it is in sore need of the sagacity and patriotism, the knowledge of men and of affairs, the spirit to deal with discouraging elements, and the purpose to subordinate everything to principle which have marked the upward steps of Warner Miller's career and are responsible for the honor with which that career has been crowned. He may accept that honor in the consciousness that he possesses the entire confidence of the Republican party which intrusts its welfare to his keeping.

POLITICAL AND PERSONAL

The Baroness Burdett Coutts is mentioned by the Bremen ... as looking ten years younger than she did before her marriage.

Prince Bismarck and General Von Moltke are the only other living personages besides Dr Schliemann upon whom the honorary citizenship of Berlin has been conferred.

Bookwalter who wants to be Governor of Ohio is charged with having told his neighbors, after his return from a trip abroad, that popular institutions were a failure, and a monarchy the best form of government.

Mme Jenny Lind Goldschmidt has received from the King of Sweden the medal Literis et Artibus in diamonds, with an authorization to wear it suspended from the blue ribbon of the Order of the Seraphim.

Along about seven o'clock on the night of the next election in Ohio there won't be a Democrat in the State who can pronounce the name of his candidate for the Governorship, provided Bookwalter puts up the money "for the boys" as he has promised. —Chicago Inter-Ocean.

The Providence Journal contradicting a report that Gen Burnside is seriously ill, says that it is true he was thrown from his wagon last week and suffered some bruises, but he received no internal injuries and no serious external hurts. He will probably be out again in a day or two.

Theodore Benfey, who was the greatest Sanskrit scholar of the time, lately died at Gottingen, where he was a professor in the University. In order to give an idea of the minuteness of his studies it may be mentioned that his treatises on the single question of the prolongation of vowels in the Rig Veda occupy more than 400 pages quarto.

A telegram from Bloomington Ill., says that Senator David Davis last week, before his departure from home for the sea side said that he intends to retire to private life at the expiration of his present Senatorial term, and under no consideration will be a candidate for re election. He intends to reside the remainder of his days in Bloomington, and devote his time to the attention of his private business.

President Garfield and Judge Black have recently become the owners of a large farm in Alexandria County, Va., lying within view of the White House. They acquired a small portion of the tract partly by purchase and partly as a fee for services. The whole tract was mortgaged, and in order to save their part they instructed an agent to buy the whole of it when the foreclosure sale occurred. While the President has been lying ill the sale has been made and his farm secured.

NEW MAGAZINES

The table of contents for the August number of the INTERNATIONAL REVIEW is inviting enough to tempt the attention and reward a thorough reading. George W. Julian opens the number with a most entertaining chapter of Reminiscences of the Thirty first Congress, the Congress which first evinced a decided element of anti slavery sentiment, and had Webster, Clay, Calhoun, Benton, Cass, Douglass, Seward, Chase, Bell, Berrien, Soule, Davis of Mississippi, Dayton, Hale, Ewing, Corwin, Hamlin, Butler, Houston and Mason, Thaddeus Stevens, Winthrop, Ashmun, Allen, Cobb of Georgia, McDowell, Giddings, Preston King, Horace Mann, Marshall, Orr, Schenck, Stanley, Toombs, Alexander H. Stephens and Vinton for members. The accomplished pen of Mr Julian who was himself a member of this Congress, could scarcely fail of drawing great interest from such a theme. The younger portion of this generation will find much information in the article which they can scarcely afford to do without. College Graduates in the Ministry is the topic selected by Rev. Charles ... Dowling for an article of considerable interest and value. He finds that the percentage of graduates from the seven principal American colleges who have entered the ministry has steadily decreased since 1850 and explains the cause. Eugene L. Didier writes of An American Bonaparte.—Jerome Napoleon Bonaparte son of the weak brother of the great Napoleon who sold his allegiance to his beautiful American wife for the crown of Westphalia, and the hand of the daughter of the King of Wurtemberg. A valuable contribution is W. H. Billings's The Divorce Question and one calculated to draw attention to the crying need of a uniform and national divorce law. A slightly metaphysical, but exceedingly readable essay upon Rights is contributed by David A. Wasson. An anonymous author tells of Some Curiosities in Horological Reckoning, and the number is brought worthily to an end by a Celt's statement Why Ireland has been Misgoverned. There is not a dull line in any one of the seven articles and the number has never been exceeded in elements of popular interest. A. S. Barnes & Co., New York.

The Midsummer Holiday SCRIBNER more than ever justifies its title, no less than six articles being directly adapted to the season, while three or four others pertain to topics of current interest. The fiction, to which one naturally turns first, includes the first half of the new story by the author of An Earnest Trifler,—The Daughter of Henry Sage Rittenhouse, a happy title, which will be found singularly appropriate. A three part story, by Mr Boyesen, also begins, with the piquant name of Queen Titania, the scene on board an Atlantic steam ship, and afterward in New York. The Village Convict, a short story of unusual force and feeling, is contributed by a new writer, C. H. White. Five more of Uncle Remus amusing fables of negro folk lore complete the Rainy Day which the little boy has been spending with that veracious Æsop. The illustrated articles are also of a kind to be welcomed by a summer audience. The Isle of Peace, by Susan Coolidge of Newport, is a description of that most elegant of watering places, including things new and old, from the year-old Casino and the fox (or rather anise-seed) hunting, back to Bishop Berkeley. The illustrations are by George Inness, Jr., Henry Sandham, Robert Blum and F. H. Lungren, and include a number of new subjects. In By the Sea in Normandy, we have by contrast a French coast resort—Etretat—the daily life of which is lightly chronicled by Mary G. Loring and finely illustrated by Douglas Volk and W. P. W. Dana and after engravings and pictures by Ulysse Butin, A. Feyen-Perrin, Bastien Lepage and Eugene Feyen. Butin's The Sailor's Wife, delicately engraved by Closson, forms the frontispiece of the number, while Lepage's First Communion, engraved in his best style by Cole, is printed without type at the back. Out of the way spot in Louisiana on the Gulf of Mexico—the island of Petite Anse—is described, under the title A Little World, by Mr A. C. Redwood who also illustrates it. This little community on the borders of Acadia is not ... among many things for the smallest newspaper in the world, of which a facsimile is given. On the principle of ... Mr Barnlam's stirring account of Ice Yachting on the Hudson is probably the most seasonable paper in the number. It is illustrated by M. J. Burns and the illustrations (one of which—A Snow Squall—is an engraved by Mr Linton) supplement the descriptions of the enjoyments and dangers of this increasingly popular sport. Mr Schuyler's Peter the Great has its usual quota of text and pictures. It is announced by the publishers that this history will be concluded in the October number, before the new series of The Century ... begun. For ... we have the first article of Mr E. C. Stedman's important series on Poetry in America and the second of Mr Albert Stickney's papers on The People's Problem. Following closely upon its account of Mr Ericsson's recent inventions in submarine warfare, SCRIBNER this month publishes, from the original MS and sketches, Robert Fulton's description of his experiments in submarine gunnery in the year 1810. Among those who contribute poems to this number are H. H., Dr J. G. Holland, R. W. Gilder, and Roger Riordan, the artist—the last named being the author of five Songs of Nature which show a new writer in a very sparkling and human vein of poetry. In Topics of the Time Dr Holland writes of The Boss System, The Rich and the Poor, and Purchasable Health. Home and Society treats of Outdoor Parlors, and in Communications a director of music in the Boston Public Schools replies to Mr Theodore Thomas's strictures on the movable do system of teaching music. Among the books reviewed are Robertson Smith's The Old Testament in the Jewish Church, Talleyrand's Correspondence, John Burroughs' Pepacton, Norris' Matrimony, Dr Robinson's Studies in the New Testament, Palustre's La Renaissance en France, and Scudder's Stories and Romances. The World's Work (a department to whose accuracy and value SCRIBNER receives constant testimonials) treats this month of Recent Progress in Iron Founding, Improvements in Boat-building, Regenerative Gas burners, Counter seats, Novel Gas producers and Electrical Soldering, Iron Bric-a-Brac, though short include some witty Aphorisms from the Quarters.

The Berlin correspondent of the London Times says: Statistics published by the Hamburg police authorities show that the number of German emigrants passing through Hamburg alone to America from January 1 to June 30 1881, amounts to 74,133, being twice the number for the same period in the year following the late war between France and Germany. The figures for each emigration in the corresponding period of last year were 36,189 and the total for the year 106,190; so that if the emigration proceeds in the same proportion for the second half of 1881 the Government will find that recent statistics ... lives by other channels it has lost in 1881 about a quarter of a million of its most efficient subjects.

A Maine Man Drowned

WINDSOR Vt, July 20 Isaiah Bacon, a cook on the Connecticut River Lumber Company's drive, was drowned at Alcott's Falls. He was a single man, about 26 years of age, and a native of Maine. He had $[illegible] gold on his person of his own and several watches that belonged to his fellow workmen.

The Maine Dental Society

AUGUSTA July 20 The session of the Maine Dental Society adjourned to-day. Papers were read on various subjects and discussions followed participated in by most of the members. Officers of the Society were chosen for the ensuing year as follows: President J H Lombard, Brunswick; Vice President M B Preble, Auburn; Secretary D W Fellows, Portland; Treasurer J W Curtis Brunswick; Librarian, Thomas Fillebrowne Portland; Executive Committee G M Twitchell, [illegible] F I Fams, Bucksport, F C [illegible], Pittsfield, F J Roberts Augusta, [illegible] Mechanic Falls. After dinner the dentists accepted the hospitality of Dr H M Harlow, superintendent of the Insane Hospital, and paid a visit to that institution. The session has been one of unusual profit and interest.

THE ALBANY CONTEST

ALBANY July 20 The joint convention at noon and voted as follows

	Senate	Assembly	Total
Lapham	[illegible]	55	72
Potter	7	4[illegible]	1[illegible]
Kernan	7	21	28
[illegible]	0	1	1

Necessary to a choice 76.

[illegible] Sharpe in voting, noticed the newspaper statement that he had been unfriendly to Conkling and said he never desired any office by the assistance of any one who had been a candidate for U S Senator here or by that of any one else. Another vote was then taken, resulting same as the previous one.

The chair declared no choice.

Senator Strahan then moved an adjournment which was carried.

At the conclusion of Speaker Sharpe's reply to Spinola in the joint convention today the Speaker cast his vote for Lapham.

ALBANY July 20 The Senate to-day passed the bill providing for the election of members of Congress to fill vacancies, etc. It is believed to-night that the election of Senators will be deferred until the Governor has signed the bill in relation to hold special elections for vacancies in Congress, which will probably be transmitted for his approval the present week.

In the State Senate to-day a resolution for final adjournment was tabled.

The prospects for an election to-morrow are no better than they were last night. The Stalwarts still clamor for a caucus and say they are willing to sign a paper that they will vote in the caucus for the nomination of Lapham. The supporters of the administration however declare it is too late to even entertain a proposition for a caucus as to hold one would place Senator Miller in an equivocal position.

WASHINGTON.

McDow and a negro heavily armed, are now at Centre, on the air line road, defying arrest and threatening to kill any revenue officer that approaches them. The Commissioner has telegraphed the revenue officials in South Carolina to obtain a strong posse and arrest McDow and his confederates.

[8 A M]

8 A M—There is a decided improvement in the President's condition this morning. He slept very well during the night and his pulse at this hour is 86 which is lower than at any previous time. His temperature and respiration are normal. His wound is doing well and is discharging freely and properly. [8 30 A M]

(Signed) D W BLISS
J K BARNES
J J WOODWARD
ROBERT REYBURN

[1 30 P M]

1.30—The President is passing a comfortable day and making steady progress toward convalescence. His pulse is 88 and temperature and respiration normal.

A dispatch has been received from Artarchi, assuring Secretary Blaine that the Sultan, the sublime Porte and the Ottoman nation have been most happy to hear of the improvement in the President's condition and hope for his speedy and complete recovery.

[4 30 P M]

Dr Reyburn reports at 4 30 P M that the President is passing the most comfortable day he has had since his injury. He has slept well and is taking liquid nourishment with relish at intervals, and has had no fever. His pulse ranged from 80 to 90 and is now at the last figure named and his temperature and respiration have been normal all day.

[7 P M]

The President has passed an excellent day. At 1 P M his pulse was 88, temperature 98 4, respiration 18. At present time his pulse is 98, temperature 99 6, respiration 19.

(Signed) D W BLISS
J K BARNES
J J WOODWARD
ROBERT REYBURN

[7 P M]

The following telegram sent by the attending surgeons to consulting surgeons this evening:

EXECUTIVE MANSION 7 P M—During the past twenty-four hours the President's progress has been uniformly satisfactory. He had a good night and has expressed himself throughout the day as feeling quite comfortable and medication reported in our last telegraph has been continued without change. At 8 30 A M pulse 80, temperature 98 4, respiration 18. At 1 P M pulse 88, temperature 98 4, respiration 18. At 7 P M pulse 98, temperature 99 6, respiration 19.

(Signed) D W BLISS
J K BARNES,
J J WOODWARD
ROBERT REYBURN

[11 P M]

The President has improved steadily all day. His condition to-night is in every way satisfactory. He has taken rather more than the usual amount of liquid nourishment but has been allowed no solid food since the manifestations of gastric disturbance on Monday except toast saturated with juice of roast beef, or steak. His afternoon fever which came on late today was very light and has at this hour nearly abated. The usual quantity of sulphate of morphia was administered hypodermically this evening and the patient is now asleep. All symptoms as favorable as could be desired.

NEW YORK CITY

NEW YORK, July 20 The Washington Star says that during the recent visit of Conkling here all of his personal effects were packed up and have been shipped to Utica. This indicates that the ex Senator has no idea of spending the next winter in Washington.

Leading Administration members declare that Dutcher's lobbying in the Delavan House was in violation of law and contrary to the express purpose for which his office was created, namely to free the canals from politics by placing their case in the hands of one man.

It is not yet known whether steps will be taken relative to Dutcher but it has been evident since the beginning that he was in the support of Conkling's canvass.

Attorney General Ward has left for his home but John F Swift has returned from the Thousand Island to assist Dutcher.

The Coles Shooting Case

George W Coles who was shot by Mrs Coleman last night, is reported to be dying. Mrs Coleman states that Coles drugged her and seduced her while drugged and then informed her husband who began a suit for divorce yesterday, with Coles as chief witness. She says she shot him with the full intent to kill him and does not regret it.

Mrs Elizabeth Coleman was arraigned to-day and committed to await the result of Coles' injuries. Coles is at the hospital in a dying condition. His ante-mortem statement was taken by the coroner to day in which he said he visited the woman a number of times but did not know she was married. She represented herself to him as a single woman.

Talk of Impeaching one of Conkling's Supporters.

The Post's Albany special says that in addition to the investigation of the Health Officer ordered by the Senate yesterday, it is now hinted that the Superintendent of Public works (Dutcher) may be impeached for making use of his official position to influence members in favor of Conkling.

The Episcopal Bishop Talbot was struck with paralysis at Indianapolis yesterday.

The subscriptions to the Garfield fund to day were $3 514. The total now is $161 925.

A suit has been commenced in the U S Circuit Court by the Government against the steamer Saratoga of Ward's Havana line and her officers, to recover duties to the amount of $100, on cigars smuggled here on that vessel.

OHIO

State Temperance Convention

CINCINNATI July 20 The State Convention called by the Temperance Convention which met in Columbus some months ago met to-day on the grounds of the Cincinnati Campmeeting Association, near Loveland. Rev R L Stanton of Cincinnati, was chosen permanent chairman. W H Doane Vice-President, and L B Logan, Secretary. Resolutions were unanimously adopted, urging citizens to vote for no one who opposed local option either for the Legislature or for State offices and to give their whole influence in favor of the election of men who favor the suppression of the liquor traffic.

CINCINNATI, July 20 After the adoption of strong prohibitory resolutions the following State ticket was nominated: For Governor, Abram R Ludlow, Springfield, Lt. Governor, Jason McVeagh, Columbus, Judge of Supreme Court, Gideon T. Stewart Norwalk, Attorney-General, Levi Mills, Wilmington, Treasurer, Ferdinand Shumaker, Akron, Board of Public Works, Abner Davis, Mercer county. An Executive Committee of 12 was appointed. The Convention passed resolutions earnestly sympathizing with the President and rejoicing in the prospect of his recovery. The Convention then adjourned.

Fatal Boiler Explosion

WATERTOWN, July 20 The boiler of a portable saw mill here was blown to atoms yesterday from lack of water. Casualties—Hiram Brockman and Eugene Barclay instantly killed, Isaac Johnson, since died, Robert Alexander and Wm. Corner fatally injured.

MISSISSIPPI.

JACKSON, Miss, July 20 The State prohibition convention met to-day with 200 delegates present. It asks the next legislature to submit to the people an amendment to the constitution prohibiting the liquor traffic.

SITTING BULL SURRENDERS

With 200 Followers.

HE IS SULLEN AND INSOLENT.

ST. PAUL, July 20 The Pioneer Press has a special from Fort Buford which says, Sitting Bull and about 200 people arrived at noon to-day and surrendered arms and ponies to Major Brotherton. No speeches have yet been made, as Bull and his orator are fatigued and hungry. They were placed in a compartment between the post and boat landing, and are as securely in Major Brotherton's charge as if in irons. The Pioneer Press correspondent visited Sitting Bull after his lodge was erected and cheered the old man up by informing him he had seen the lost daughter, whom the Canadians had told him was in chains, only a short time before, and that she was well and happy. The chief expressed a desire to have a talk after he had rested and had something to eat. The cavalcade as it filed by the garrison attracted much attention. It consisted of six army wagons loaded with squaws and children, followed by 25 or 30 carts well filled with baggage. Sitting Bull, himself and his chiefs and headmen rode their ponies and did not dismount and shake hands till they arrived at the place fixed for their camp. Capt. Clifford states that Sitting Bull is very sullen and insolent.

THE OHIO NOMINATIONS.

Bookwalter Accepts

SARATOGA, N Y, July 20 John A Bookwalter and Colonel Edgar M Johnson, the Democratic candidates for Governor and Lieut Governor of Ohio met at Congress Hall to-day and telegraphed the committee of the convention their acceptance.

HONORED AND BLEST

When a board of eminent physicians and chemists announced the discovery that by combining some well known valuable remedies, the most wonderful medicine was produced, which would cure such a wide range of diseases that most all other remedies could be dispensed with, many were skeptical, but proof of its merits by actual trial has dispelled all doubt, and to-day the discoverers of that great medicine, Hop Bitters, are honored and blessed by all as benefactors.—Democrat.

No medicine is more popular than Adamson's Botanic Cough Balsam. It is a sure cure and therefore advertises itself. TTF

The Law Term of the S J Court opened in Portland Tuesday. Chief Justice Appleton and Judges Walton, Barrows Virgin, Danforth and Symonds were present.

Landlord Shaw of the West End Hotel Bar Harbor, served an elegant dinner to the members of Collins Portland Band on the occasion of their visit to that place last Sunday.

Charles V Lord Esq, of this city, recently met with an accident in Dublin, Ireland. While stepping from a car he sprained his ankle and was laid up several days in consequence.

A rural exchange remarks "No man can know how much there is in this life to enjoy until he slows away hay in a window less loft when the mercury stands plus 100 in the shade."

The First Methodist Society and Sabbath School will make an excursion to Northport and Lincolnville on the barge Clifford and steamer Ralph Ross, leaving at half past seven this morning.

There will be a special meeting of St John's Commandery at Masonic Hall this afternoon at one o'clock, to attend the funeral of their late Sir Knight Frank Currier. Sir Knights to assemble in full Knights Templar costume.

We learn that Rev Father Thomas J Kelley, for the past three months assistant pastor of St. John's Catholic Church, left this city last evening for Portland at the call of the Bishop. Father Kelley has made many friends in our city during his residence here.

The personal in yesterday's paper to the effect that Mrs Kate B Ford had received an appointment as Lecturer to the City Teachers' Institute was a little indefinite. The Institute is at Cleveland. The appointment is a flattering recognition of the lady's scholarly abilities.

It is reported that Wm Bright of this city and James Mitchell of Belfast have taken the contract for constructing the roadbed of the Bangor & Katahdin Iron Works Railway. Work will be begun at once and prosecuted with vigor. Men are now wanted by the contractors.

DETENTION OF TRAIN. The mail train from Boston due here last evening did not arrive until quarter past two this morning. The delay was in consequence of the grounding of a schooner at the Charles River draw just as the eastward bound train from Boston had reached the bridge.

STEAM YACHT SAPPHO The steam yacht Sappho of Boston having on board Capt G H Brooks the owner Messrs C F Smith of New York, P M Kent R A J V Lewis, R S of Cincinnati and O A Robinson of Boston arrived here yesterday afternoon, from Bar Harbor and will very likely remain until Friday.

Messrs J S Jenness, J Fred Godfrey and J Murry have returned from a successful and pleasurable fishing excursion, looking as brown and hardy as veritable sons of the forest. Mr Jenness caught, on a fly hook, a salmon weighing thirty pounds and it was conceded by his companions that he took the—toothsome product of the baker's skill.

EXCURSION The First Parish Congregational Mission Sabbath School, with their friends, will make their annual excursion to-morrow, on the new and beautiful steamer Queen City, starting from upper steamboat wharf at eight o'clock. The party will proceed to Islesboro, touching at Northport, and perhaps continue further down the bay. Fare 50 and 25 cents.

We regret to learn that ex Governor Davis is quite seriously ill at his home in East Corinth, where he has been confined for the past fortnight. He has had a recurrence of the sickness contracted in the army and which has impaired his health ever since. In common with his many friends we hope his illness may prove but temporary and that he will soon be restored to health.

ANNIVERSARY OF THE BATTLE OF BULL RUN. July 21, 1861,—just twenty years ago to day,—the memorable battle known as the First Bull Run was fought. There are several old soldiers in this city who participated in that engagement, among them the writer of this paragraph. The recurrence of this anniversary will remind them not only of the fearful events of that terrible Sunday, but also of the rapid flight of time.

We were informed last evening that two boys, each about thirteen years of age, left their homes in this city on Monday, to go to Pushaw Pond, without the knowledge of their parents, intending to return the same night. Failing to return their parents became alarmed and a search was instituted which resulted in finding the boys in the vicinity of the pond, in a lost condition, about three o'clock the next morning.

OLD WAR RELICS "Our contemporary says there is an old flintlock gun," and a sword that was used in the revolutionary war in the office of the Union Insurance Company, on Exchange street, that are quite interesting curiosities. The old French gun was used in the French and Indian wars and is thought to be over 200 years old. The sword was used in the Revolutionary war and is very rusty, but still shows the fine quality of steel from which it was manufactured. An eagle's head forms the end of the handle, which is of ribbed bone.

FATAL BURNING ACCIDENT On Saturday, the 16th inst., a shocking accident with a fatal result occurred in the north ern part of the town of Exeter. A Mrs Smith an elderly lady was at work in the house while the family were out of doors about the buildings when her clothes caught fire it is presumed from the stove. Her shrieks of agony were heard by those outside and they ran to her assistance but were too late, her garments were nearly all burned off and her skin was burned to a crisp from head to foot. She lingered a few hours in great agony till death came to her relief.

WEST WATERVILLE Our correspondent "G" writes: Extensive improvements have been commenced by the Dunn Edge Tool Co, the cost of which will be from $5000 to $6000. A new Hercules water wheel will be soon in position which cost $1200. A flume will be constructed on the west side of the stream for future enlargements or other expected industries. No water power in New England can have more advantages than this for cotton, woolen, or any other manufacturing. Neither freshets ice nor logs can ever cause trouble to the interests on this stream, and manufacturers will soon appreciate such a power, especially as it is never failing. But little business is being done in any of our shops.

A NARROW ESCAPE On Monday afternoon, Patrick Goff a workman employed on the cotton mill in Richmond was greasing the slides of the temporary elevator, and had reached the upper floor when the hoisting rope broke and the elevator with its rider went like a shot to the bottom of the building. The falling man clutched at every floor in his descent but did not succeed in obtaining a hold until the second floor was reached when by a desperate effort, he clung to the elevator slide and managed to stop himself. His shoulders were severely wrenched, and his arms were bruised but no bones were broken. The escape was a narrow one and the man probably owes his life to his wonderful nerve and presence of mind.

BLOODED DOGS Bangor boasts of many thoroughbred dogs. We know of several gentlemen in this city who paid as high as or a hundred dollars each for their canine pets, and a few dogs owned here are said to represent much larger sums. According to the Journal Lewiston has caught the fever and there is in that city an unusual demand for high blooded dog flesh. Last Tuesday there arrived per express in that city consigned to one of its citizens a high seasoned specimen of Russian poodle. The dog is all poodle and entirely Russian—a thoroughbred in all respects. One end of the box in which the dog arrived was marked "This is his head." The animal was carefully unshipped with that part of the box pointing due north by the compass and the corresponding extremity of the dog was tagged to prevent any misunderstanding between the dog and his beef steaks hereafter.

A BIG MONTH'S WORK A subscriber writes from Lincoln as follows: "Mr M L Scott, contractor at J P Webber's mill in Lincoln in twenty six working days in the months of June and July with his two hired men at a single up and down saw and planer sawed, planed put out and cross piled in proper shape for season ing 100,000 feet of hemlock boards besides cutting off all the slabs that came off from the lumber four feet long which was about thirty five cords, and running them away into the yard and piling them up nicely to dry. If any of the down river mill men have beaten that the present season or think they can we should be glad to hear from them. Much credit is due to Mr Scott and his men for the manner in which this as well as the rest of his work is performed as everything is done in A No 1 order.

BELFAST ITEMS Our correspondent "T" writes from Belfast: On the afternoon of the 19th inst Frank F Strout lost the first and fourth fingers of his left hand by placing them in contact with a buzz saw in the pattern room of the Belfast foundry. The second and third fingers will probably be saved but in a crippled condition. Mr Strout belongs in Belfast.—On the 18th inst the City Council of Belfast authorized the Mayor and Treasurer to issue 10-10 4 per cent city bonds interest payable semi annually to an amount equal to the present indebtedness of the city for the purpose of refunding said indebtedness. The new loan is to be secured by pledging the city's stock in the B & M I R. R Co., reserving the right to represent the stock in the stockholders meeting.

TOURNAMENTS AT MARANOCOOK The Union Rowing Association of Portland is arranging for an aquatic tournament at Lake Maranocook in August. In addition to other novelties there is to be a race between crews of policemen from the various Maine cities, in police boats. There is to be a grand race for amateurs. The tournament will attract people from New England.—There is to be a grand military tournament at Lake Maranocook, August 11th. Assurances have been received that that nearly every military organization in the State will participate. Cash prizes to the amount of several hundred dollars will be awarded for single and company drill, and for proficiency and accuracy in target shooting. A range is to be immediately built at the lake. Excursion trains are to be run on the Maine Central and all connecting roads.

THE BATES MILLS The Bates mills are now making 380 different designs of goods, in their looms and when the new quilt mill is completed, this large number will be increased. Few mills in this country produce so large a variety of goods. The mills will make a grand display at the State Fair. The warps for these different designs contain from 940 to 9 000 ends each, and the amount of skill and clear-headedness required in making these complicated designs may be imagined. Two designers are employed by the Bates, at high salaries. Both are German. One has been here about six years; the other two years. The best designers employed by the mills of this country are chiefly Germans and Englishmen. Here is a field open for Americans who have talent and are undecided about the choice of an occupation. American pattern makers are very rare, and there seems no good reason why they should be. Germans are also called splendid weavers by our mill men, and many of them are employed on the Jacquard looms of the Bates, on which the most intricate designs are woven.—Lewiston Journal.

ACCIDENT. Thomas K Smith, engineer of the N B & C. Railroad, while attempting to jump from his engine to the platform at Watt Junction, Tuesday, slipped and fell to the ground. His right arm falling under the wheels, was cut off close to the shoulder.

DIPHTHERIA IN MONROE. We learn that over twenty deaths have occurred from diphtheria in Monroe, and the disease is still spreading new victims being taken every day. Wesley Scribner buried the last of three children on Monday. Whole families are swept away and still the destroyer is not stayed.

FAILURE IN PORTLAND Mr J H Sawyer, a well known stable keeper in Portland, has failed. His liabilities are not far from $35 000. His assets are considerable but what they would bring at a forced sale is of course uncertain. A meeting of his creditors will be held in Portland to day. Much sympathy is expressed for Mr Sawyer, who has been unfortunate and who has struggled hard to meet his indebtedness dollar for dollar, but in vain.

CUM GRANO SALIS The editor of that readable paper the Somerset Reporter, has for two weeks been rusticating in the wilds of the Aroostook. He tells his readers to be prepared to read next week some big yarns about how many bears and buffaloes he has slaughtered and how many miles of unbroken forest he had to traverse by spotted lines in order to reach his destination. There is one story which he will probably tell that we warn the public not to believe that is that the potato bugs are so thick there that the farmers haul them out of their fields by the cart load and that Paris Green kills only the top layer. The story is untrue.

Personals

Councilmen Fairbanks and family are rusticating at North Chesterville.

Ex Mayor Newell Blake is stopping at the Mt Kineo House.

Among the people at the Poland Spring House are Miss H E Hillard and Mrs H S Griswold, of Bangor.

Decision in Law

The following decision has been received by Ruel Smith, Esq. Clerk of the Eastern Law District:

PENOBSCOT COUNTY CASE.

E M Blanding, vs T H Mansfield

Where there is nothing in the contract to show that the defendant was likely to be thereby misled or prejudiced it is no ground for sustaining a general demurrer that the word "plaintiff" is used in some parts of the declaration when there are three plaintiffs named.

Nor that in one count it is not averred the defendant is charged as indebted to a certain newspaper when the names of the plaintiffs as proprietors of the newspaper are given upon the bill.

Nor that one item of the account is for "bill renewed" without specifications, when there are other items upon which judgment may be rendered.

The adjudication of the judge that said prius that a demurrer filed at the second term and presented and passed upon the day it was filed is frivolous and intended for delay has no effect upon the rights or liabilities of the defendant and he is not legally aggrieved thereby.

The presiding Justice did not so adjudge the exceptions and, looking at the course the case has taken the Law Court does not.

Exceptions overruled.

A ranchero in the Platte Valley in referring to his isolated life, said: "Oh you see, stranger, I'll make a big stake here after while and the climate is perfect. My family are well, except in wild plum season when the young 'uns get all tied up with Cramps and Diarrhea and Cholera Morbus and such like, but I kin knock all such complaints higher'n a kite with PERRY DAVIS PAIN KILLER. A PUBLIC DUTY

We are not in the habit of puffing any sort of patent medicines in our columns for the business of a newspaper is to let people know what is going on in the world and not to lend aid to what may be an imposition. But we happen to know Dr David Kennedy, of Rondout, N Y, and can personally testify to the excellence of the medicine which the doctor calls "Favorite Remedy." And if a word of ours will persuade anybody to use it, and thus find relief from suffering, no professional etiquette shall hinder us from saying that word. For diseases of the blood kidneys and bowels it has no equal. We would not be without it for five times the dollar that it costs.—Daily Times.

EDUCATED WOMEN

Refined and educated women will sometimes suffer in silence for years from kidney diseases or constipation and piles, which could easily be cured by a package of Kidney Wort. There is hardly a woman to be found that does not at some time suffer from some of the diseases for which this great remedy is a specific. It is put up in liquid and dry forms, equally efficient.—Springfield Union.

THE KEY TO HEALTH

Have you found the key to perfect health and strength? It is Kidney-Wort the only remedy that overcomes at once the inaction of the kidneys and bowels. It purifies the blood by cleansing the system of foul humors and by giving strength to the liver, kidneys and bowels to perform their regular functions. See displayed advertisement.

A GOOD INTRODUCTION.

Favorite Remedy, was introduced into Connecticut in 1877 at the solicitation of Rev. J. G Smith, of Hartford, who, after having suffered for years from Chronic Liver Disease and Indigestion, obtained the medicine and was cured. This faithful pastor, thinking of the bodies as well as the souls of his people, at once commenced the advocacy of "Favorite Remedy" among them, and has been the happy instrument of saving scores of lives. Favorite Remedy is now as well and favorably known in Connecticut as along the Hudson. One dollar a bottle. All druggists have it. Dr David Kennedy, Proprietor, Rondout, N Y. d&w2w jy13

A FOOL ONCE MORE

For ten years my wife was confined to her bed with such a complication of ailments that no doctor could tell what was the matter or cure her and I used up a small fortune in humbug stuff. Six months ago I saw a U S flag with Hop Bitters on it and I thought I would be a fool once more. I tried it but my folly proved to be wisdom. Two bottles cured her, she is now as well and strong as any man's wife and it cost me only two dollars. Such folly pays.—H W, Detroit Mich.—Free Press.

LETTER CARRIERS.

All letters are delivered free by carriers when addressed to street and number. People should inform their correspondents of above and have their letters addressed accordingly.

Persons leaving their address at the General Delivery can have the letters sent. Much more convenient to have the street and number. Delivery can also be effected earlier than if the same is put on at the office. Carriers make two deliveries daily, the first trip supplying the evening edition of the routes.

Collections are made morning and evening in season for mail orders.

Hon. Ayra the Carrier in Window will be on call for the delivery of letters from 9 to 9½ A. M., and from 7:30 to 8 P. M. Sundays from 9 to 11 A. M.

Any irregularities in the Carriers' department should be reported to the office.

ENVELOPES.

No additional charge will be made for printing the name and request to return, across the left hand upper corner of the envelope furnished by the Post Office Department (samples of which may be seen at the Collector's desk below) when order is in lots of not less than 500.

A request for the return of a letter to the writer, if unclaimed within thirty days, or less, will be complied with if the writer's name, post office and State, across the left end of the envelope, or in face title, will be complied with.

The public are earnestly recommended to prepay Stamp on all envelopes with printed return request, as the expense is less, and letters thus endorsed, if not delivered to person addressed, are returned each to the proper party almost as soon as delivered.
